Subject: Happy 1-year Anniversary, Rev. James

Greetings

Rev. James Edward Curtis, Jr,

Congratulations! You have officially notched one full year as a member of the Universal Life Church! We are truly honored to count you as a part of our global family, and we hope this past year was filled with experiences that were both personally rewarding and spiritually enriching. You should be proud of all the work you've put in to this endeavor, and we can't wait to see where you go from here!

Being an effective minister requires little more than the proper credentials and a good head on your shoulders. That being said, it's never a bad idea to "look the part" as well. You've been at this a while now, but perhaps you never had a chance to pick up some clergy-specific attire. As you hit your 1-year mark as an ordained minister, we'd encourage you to browse our full catalog of ministerial apparel and invest in a stylish outfit to wear during ceremonies for years to come.

We hope that we were able to provide you with everything you needed in your first year of service as a minister. We're always looking for feedback in order to better serve our member community, so if there's anything you'd like to see improved upon, please let us know! In the meantime, we've been hard at work building additional resources to help you achieve your goals. Check out these new materials available exclusively through our website:

Thanks to the rise of social media, we're thrilled to be able to easily connect with our ministers all over the world. To help us follow your spiritual journey and catch all of the highlights, tag us in your posts and use #ordained. We can't wait to see all the cool things you've been up to!

The work of a minister is never complete. No matter how many weddings you officiate, baptisms you perform, or funerals you preside over, there will always be more to learn. As you continue to gain experience and become more deeply involved in your community, your goal ought not to be attaining perfection – only fools believe themselves infallible. Instead, seek improvement. Seek enlightenment. And above all, seek wisdom. We're honored to stand by your side as you progress on this lifelong journey, and we'll continue to provide assistance however we are able.

Peace,

Brother Richard
