Bro. Curtis,

Thank you for sending your position research paper for me to examine. After glancing through it a few times, I was unable to get a real sense of (a) why you sent a copy to me (b) what it is you want me to do and (c) to whom am I to direct what it is you are requesting.

It appears to be an effort on your part to secure employment in some educational atmosphere. If it is a reference you are seeking, a name to send the reference to would certainly

If you are looking for a whosoever will reference - which is much less effective than a "designated reference" - I will put that together and send it to you under a separate cover.

May God continue to bless your efforts.

Stephen Tucker
