FACULTY ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

The American Federation of Teacher (AFT) is a union dedicated to improving the work-life of the hundreds of thousands of adjunct professors teaching in colleges and universities across the country. We are organizing to build collective bargaining power, community and resources for a vital yet underrepresented majority of university faculties. Education is a public good, so we need to provide our students with a secure, respected faculty. Together, we can achieve what we cannot as individuals. Join us.
