August 7, 2020, update,
APPLICATION PROCEEDING NOMINATION, AHA MEMBER SPOTLIGHT, JAMES CURTIS JR, NOMINEE.

AHA Member Spotlight

In an effort to showcase our diverse membership and the varied interests that bring us together in a common love for history, the American Historical Association highlights an individual member each week on our Perspectives Daily blog (<https://www.historians.org/publications-and-directories/perspectives-on-history/member-spotlight>). This "AHA Member Spotlight" is an online post consisting of answers to a short questionnaire and a picture of the AHA member.

If you would like to participate, please complete the following questionnaire, skip questions that do not apply, ensure your answers to all these questions total 700 words or less, and the picture you upload is of yourself, at least 72 dpi and 400 pixels wide.

AHA POLICIES: You must be a current member at the time the spotlight is posted, which may be several months after we receive it. Except in rare instances, beyond applying Chicago style, the AHA does not edit responses. If any substantive edits are made AHA staff will contact you directly before publishing.

PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT: By submitting answers to questions posed on this questionnaire you are implicitly granting the American Historical Association the right in perpetuity to publish the text in any form and in any medium (after any editing that might be considered necessary). You also warrant that you have the right to use the text, that it is original, and that any quotations contained therein are properly cited and will be covered by the fair use clauses of copyright law. If you submit a photograph of yourself, you give the American Historical Association the right in perpetuity to publish the photograph on its web site or in any of the Association's other publications and you acknowledge also that you have the right to allow the reproduction of the photograph.
