ACADEMIA

Dear Igri (Director, Internet
Graduate Research Institute,
James Curtis, Jr,
jamesjr@jecjef.net),

My name is Zach, Director of Product at Academia. We are launching a new feature on Academia, Courses, and we are inviting a select group to apply to teach a paid course on Academia. We've selected you because we think you might be a good fit.

A course on Academia will consist of a series of brief, asynchronous lectures (1-3 hours total) around a theme, as well as course materials, and the opportunity to connect with students. We will pay our course instructors at a rate competitive with other platforms.
